COACHING AND MENTORING TRAINING COURSE OUTLINE

FOREWORD

In today's environment of changing technology and evolving organisations, coaching can create a strong competitive advantage. It provides options for continuous learning and develops staff to meet current and future needs. Business mentoring and coaching is an investment that you make in developing your key resource - your people - for the long-term benefit of the organisation.

About 6 out of 10 (59%) organisations currently offer coaching or other developmental counselling to their managers and executives, according to a nationwide survey of more than 300 companies conducted by Manchester, a human capital consulting firm. Another 20% of organisations said they plan to offer such coaching within the next year.

Improved productivity occurs when managers develop strong relationships with their employees. Executive mentoring builds the capability of managers to help their employees with the intangible elements of human relationships. This Coaching and Mentoring Training program taught in this course will help you turn performance management into a collaborative process that benefits everyone.
