1.0 DAY COURSE

Build upon your REACH Practitioner or REACH Certified Leader credentials and learn to professionally debrief a group of people using REACH Profiles. You'll learn to help them recognise their Style, Strengths and Tendencies, which leads to often life-changing self-awareness.

You'll learn how to help them develop a growth mindset and lean-in to their personal growth. And you'll help them understand other people and situations better and have 'aha' moments that positively change their lives and relationships forever.

In this course, you receive the resources to run 6 different versions of a workshop that bring REACH to life for teams with different needs, and you gain clarity on how you're going to adapt the course to include your stories to share which brings it to life for your participants.

This course give you the confidence, insights and preparation to run a professional, often life-changing session in person, online, or hybrid.

What You'll Gain:

Leaders and learning and development professionals that complete this course are equipped with their own personalised version of a world-class personal and professional growth program that they can deliver to people in person, online or hybrid. You'll learn to deliver thought-provoking activities and content incorporating your own experiences and stories. The different approaches you'll learn to prepare to you to deliver to team member or leaders.

Experienced organisational development professionals have called this the "best learning experience they have ever had".
