COURSE LENGTH: 1.0 DAYS

Having effective communication skills is a must in any position, in any business. The ability to navigate through dealings with clients and colleagues across cultural lines opens doors in the business world. In this interactive workshop, participants will learn the secrets of communicating across cultures including building personal credibility, improving listening skills, reading non-verbal cues, participating in business meetings, positioning your company, giving feedback, negotiating, resolving problems and more. Combining short lectures, case studies, role-plays and group discussion, this course will provide participants with strategies to communicate and conduct business effectively across cultures.
