Pitch: Proposal &
Presentation Sales
Training Course

COURSE LENGTH: 1.0 DAYS

Creating and presenting professional proposals requires skills such as strategic thinking, thorough competitive analysis, technical research and writing skills, document and presentation software formatting and organising and editing. Additional skills would include public speaking and facilitation.

Writing and presenting a winning proposal is both an art form and a craft that you can learn and improve with training and practice. Delivering both well helps the client better understand your proposed solution and assists you in closing the deal.

The PD Training Pitch Proposal and Presentation Sales Training Course provides comprehensive training in each step of the preparation and development of a proposal, and associated presentation method, to help you achieve mastery in writing and delivering your next professional sales proposal.

This dynamic training course is available now throughout Australia, including Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide, Canberra, and Perth.
